An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Jennings on Feb. 23, 2004.

Mr. Jennings authorizes the following changes in the part a) of the claims 12:
"twist angle of the twisted phase difference board smaller than the absolute twist angle of the liquid crystal devices by a range of 10° to 40° " into "the absolute value of twist angle of the twisted phase difference board smaller than the absolute twist angle of the liquid crystal devices by a range of 10° to 40° ."

DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 2 Jan. 2004 has been entered.

Applicant cancelled claim 6.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-5 and 7-14 are allowed.

Reasons for Allowance

The claims 1 and 12 are allowable since there is no prior art teaches a combination of:

- a twisted phase difference board comprising liquid crystal polymers;
- the direction of the twist angle of molecule orientation of the twisted phase difference board is reverse to the direction of the twisted orientation of the liquid crystal molecule of the liquid crystal device
- the absolute value of twist angle of the twisted phase difference board smaller than the absolute twist angle of the liquid crystal devices by a range of 10° to 40°.

Art Unit: 2871

Claims 2-5, 7-11 and 14 are allowed since they depend on the allowed claims.

Claim 13 is allowed since there is no prior art teaches the combination of the claim subjects from a-e, especially c and d.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
